

TC-CT68 Counterfeit Product Warning

TRENDnet has learned that counterfeit versions of the RJ-11/RJ-45 Crimp/Cut/Strip Tool, model TC-CT68, have been in circulation, primarily in Indonesia. The counterfeit versions look very similar with very similar packaging. Counterfeit products do not meet TRENDnet's quality standards. The counterfeit versions appear with a fake TRENDnet logo, and are made with much lower quality materials and poor craftsmanship.

Please remember that technical support, warranties, and replacements are not available for counterfeit products. TRENDnet is not responsible if counterfeit products that malfunction, or cause any injuries or damages.

To ensure you are purchasing genuine TRENDnet products in Indonesia, make your purchases only from the authorized distributor and resellers listed below.
